NY Beauty Guide: Shobha Threading Salon

Shobha is my favorite place to get my brows done, for two reasons. The first being, I love the colorful and exotic decor and second being the great service. A friend tipped me off about Shobha a while back and I'm forever grateful for her suggestion. Shobha is incredibly clean, inviting and beautiful. The staff is amazing and they are very professional and clinical which I really appreciate. They also offer also waxing (the best Brazilian in NY mind you), sugaring and facials.

Indian women are obsessed with threading because of the precision and definition it brings to brows. I always make it a point to have my eyebrows reshaped while vacationing in India so it's nice to get the same look here in NY. Visit Shobha and make sure you let them know we sent you and tell us about your experience. See all locations here. -Mimi
