Beauty Steals for the Whole Gang

These discounts are good enough to cause a mob scene.

You know, we think of you like family.
And here at VJ, it pays to be a member of the family.

We've rounded up our favorite new beauty products for spring and (thanks to our "associates") come up with some offers you can't refuse:

Tarte: Their new lineup of pretty, natural products has us feeling springy (especially the perfect whirled cheek stain and spring greening set). Knock 25% off everything with code "VITAL" through 3/22.

John Masters Organics: With their reformulated skincare line, we'll be facing the warm weather with bright eyes and clear skin. Through 4/12, take 25% off all skincare with code "vital."

Shobha: Goodbye winter fuzz! Go bare for spring with minimal hassle (or pain, when you try sugaring)...and with 25% off all products, it's at minimal cost, too. Use code "2009VJ25" through 3/26.

Alchimie Forever: We're loving the anti-aging products from this plant-based line (especially this brightening mask). Get refreshed with a 25% sitewide discount by using code "VJ25" through 3/31.

Lather: They're famous for their exfoliating body scrubs (like these using sugar cane and jojoba beads), and now you can score a spring glow for 25% off by using code "VITALJUICE" sitewide through 3/16.
