Guide Review - Shobha Ingrown Relief Lotion

I've had the problem with treating ingrown hair forever. I wax and still get those pesky ingrowns, especially on my bikini line. As I write this review summer is fast approaching, and I couldn't be more excited to share this product with you!

When I returned from visiting the East Coast (in Mid-March), where coats are the main fashion accessory and the growth of your hair only helps you stay warm, only to set sail to the Colorado River in Arizona where the weather is hot and bikinis are in full swing! Great, I have hair everywhere and ingrowns in places they don't belong. I had to shave and immediately started using Shobha Ingrown Relief Lotion and within two days, bye-bye ingrown hairs and hello sun.

This was awesome! It's a bit thicker than most ingrown hair relief products because it's a lotion, not a gel or serum. I rubbed it in and the product disappeared, and it took the ingrowns with it. I've used it every other day and I have not had a problem since.

If you have the tendency to get redness from threading, this product will work for that also. I used to have the same problem but after I had my brows done, I rubbed a bit in and presto, no redness! I've also shared this product with some friends and the results were the same. Great, the texture of my skin seems much better and I will be buying this product again and again.
