Shobha's Cinco De Mayo Festivities

POSTED BY VERA, MAY 5, 2009 AT 07:17 AM

Have you heard of the No Double-Dip Policy? I didn't, until I visited Shobha, NY's celebrated Hair Removal Expert and the #1 choice for natural and effective hair removal. I've tried waxing twice in my life and, although I'm a germophobe, I was too preoccupied with the pain to notice that the tool being used to spread the wax on my skin was repeatedly dipped in hot wax. You didn't notice that either, did you? Luckily at Shobha, they picked up on this problem and came up with a solution....the No Double-Dip Policy. That's just one of the ways that they ensure their clients get the best quality hair removal possible. Shobha recently began a product line so that they could be certain the products they use are free of toxins and chockful of natural ingredients like lime and sugar.

I attended their Cinco De Mayo festivities yesterday and felt like I entered a little oasis. After battling the drizzly New York weather, it was such a relief to relax in their cosy salon, bathed in soothing lights and adorned with super comfortable seats and lounge areas. That certainly made waiting a breeze. I sipped a Shobharita, which is made of tequila, triple sec, organic lime juice and Shoba Sugaring Gel (yup, the same stuff they use for their sugaring treatments!) which you must try if you get the chance. The person who did my treatment was really knowledgeable about the task ahead of her. She explained everything to me in great detail and was really patient. I wanted to try the sugaring treatment, since I had never done that before and I must admit, it certainly is less painful than waxing.

Knowing that the salon focuses on just hair removal lets you know that they are focused on providing the best, most up-to date services available in the world of hair removal.

To schedule an appointment at one their three NY locations, go to www.myshobha.com or call 212-931-8363.
