FIGHT INGROWN HAIR

Personally, the best way that I fight ingrown hair's in the bikini area is to never ever let a razor come near that area. Every other hair removal method works better for me and leaves me bump free, but every now and then I have no choice but to resort to shaving. Thank the heavens above for Shobha Ingrown Relief Lotion! Use it before getting razor bumps to prevent them or use it after you have a few to get rid of them.

The Low Down on the Formula: Shobha's formula uses natural ingredients that are effective without being harsh or drying! no worries, it's free of parabens, color & artificial fragrance.

- * glycolic acid exfoliates
- * tea tree oil protects
- * chamomile soothes
- * glycerin moisturizes

While we're dishing about Shobha... has anyone had the pleasure of going there for the BEST sugaring in NYC? Please dish in the comments section.
