Best spas and salons for hair removal

Waxing, threading, laser and more—if you have unwanted hair, we know a place that'll gladly rid you of it.

Shooha

Waxing and its gender cousin, sugaring, are both on the menu at this chic minichain, but facial threading is its signature treatment. Any of the well-trained specialists can give you brows Brooke Shields would envy ($20), but Manju (at the midtown location) is particularly fast and gentle. Arrive early to unwind: Each salon stocks a wide assortment of herbal tea and a generous selection of magazines in the waiting area. Shooha also extends its hours before and during holiday weekends to accommodate the high volume of clients in need of bikini maintenance. Locations throughout the city; visit myshooha.com.
