

Shobha Exfoliating Cloth Review

The Shobha Exfoliating Cloth is a roughly woven cloth designed to slough off dead skin.

My first impression was that it's not much to look at. It almost resembles burlap since it is made of all-natural fibers.

My second impression was, hey, this actually works! I have really dry skin, so my legs are really flaky. After using the Shobha Exfoliating Cloth, though, my legs were silky smooth. Another bonus? The texture of the cloth felt like a rejuvenating massage.

Some Shobha Exfoliating Cloth facts:
