

For the modern mom

A hip mom needs a cool diaper bag. Babybel made by Storksak has a line of modern bags that combine style and function. Whether you choose the hobo design or versatile X2, they both have adjustable shoulder straps with a patent-pending stroller attachment, insulated bottle pockets, a changing pad and spacious compartments.

Check it out at Nest Maternity & Baby in Portsmouth.

Ease the discomfort of nursing

Although breastfeeding is rewarding and a wonderful way to bond with your baby, it can cause discomfort. Keen Distribution has come out with a product called Breast Ease. They are warm/cool reusable gel pads contoured to fit the breast and designed to provide relief to nursing mothers.

Available at Buy Buy Baby in Nashua or Babies 'R Us.

Cover up

Slings and Baby Things offers 100-percent cotton or cotton/Lycra nursing covers in a variety of beautiful patterns. Machine-washable with a flexible top so you can see your baby latching on and nursing.

No more popsicle mess

Popsicles are messy, sticky and they melt too darn fast! Pop Pals are insulated ice pop holders that keep the ice pop cold while keeping your hands warm. Great for children and messy adults. Dishwasher- and freezer-safe.

Find them at Target, Walmart, and Tiny Totland.

Get rid of unwanted hair NATURALLY

Pregnancy can make moms hairier because of the increase of androgens. If you are looking for an alternative to electrolysis, and don't feel like taking a trip to the spa, the Shobha Sugaring Hair Remover is an all-natural sugaring gel that removes hair gently and effectively and can be used at home.

Kits can be ordered at www.drugstore.com.
