

Courtesan in the City: Kitten Lounge Celebration at Shobha

f Like 2

Tweet 1

Share 3

September 27th, 2011 by Shoshi

During Fashion Week, The Kitten Lounge celebrated four years of bringing fierce fashion and lifestyle.

The founder of Kitten Lounge, Kimmie Smith, invited select VIPs and bloggers to a four year celebration at Shobha located at Columbus Circle. It was my first time at Shobha and as soon as I stepped into their doors I fell in love.

Shobha is a hair removal salon that specializes in hair removal treatments, including threading, sugaring & waxing. It's not just any salon; it is an experience that gets a modern courtesan thumbs up. The smell of rose water is in the air as you enter the seductive atmosphere which is more like a lair. There is even a bed in the middle of the salon which you can lounge on at your leisure.

We had the opportunity to experience their eye brow threading service as we schmoozed and sipped on "Sugaritinis" that were made from their Shobha Sugaring Treatments (yes, it's edible).

The specialist who worked on my brows has been doing threading for ten years so I felt like I was in good hands. Long story short, I loved how my brows turned out. After the brows are complete they are wiped with the Shobha refreshing rosewater cloths. I immediately booked my next appointment, I have a feeling I will become a regular. I also have to give a big shout out to the Shobha staff who is fun and fabulous!

To top it off, guests were sent home with swag in Shobha bags. I love that I was sent home with Shobha rosewater cloths, Cosmopolitan Magazine, and will be sent a pair of flip flops from Havaianas.

It was a great way to celebrate in Kitten Lounge style. The whole night was a sexy and sensual experience. Check out the Kitten Lounge for the latest on fashion and make sure to stop by Shobha to experience their services, it is perfect for your luscious life.