Shobha (@MyShobha) on Madison Ave is my favorite place to keep my brows looking fabulous and so this season it's important to spread the good cheer to all those in need! A few weeks ago, I went to the opening of their newest location in the Financial District. This location could also use you guys as well and so we're excited to announce that between now and Dec 16th, you can get a free brow, underarm or bikini treatment! Simply print this out and bring it in; however, you only get ONE of these items for free, AND you must be a new Shobha customer so if you've always wanted to check it out – this is your perfect opportunity to do so. For additional information, read the information above and see why Kitten Lounge stands behind one of our favorite salons in the city!
