

DEFUZZ AT D.C.'S FIRST DEDICATED DEPILATORY

WE WAX LYRICAL ABOUT SHOBHA

Is that seaweed in your bikini, or are you just happy to see us?

Nothing a visit to Shobha can't fix.

The cult fuzz-removal experts open the doors to the first salon in the District dedicated to removing unwanted hair from brow to toe.

Applying her Indian roots and Harvard MBA, founder Shobha Tummala takes a holistic approach to streamlined services. Choose from sugaring, waxing, and threading (the latter targets lines of hair with precision and less redness). On your way out, stock up on Tummala's line of products — the ingrown relief treatment lotion loaded with exfoliating glycolic acid is tops.

There's no double dipping, and treatments end with a spritz of calming rose-scented salve. The sugaring gel (a mix of sugar, lemon, water, and glycerin) is edible and can even be used to sweeten tea.

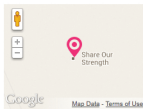

No joke.
