

SUMMER PAMPERING

Spa Savvy

New York's go-to waxing salon opened its first location outside the city in June with Shobha, located just below Dupont Circle. The beauty bar, which offers waxing, sugaring and threading services, selected the District for its second city based on the number of Washington women who had standing appointments at their Manhattan location. Another new pampering palace is now in the area: Beverly Hills-based Thibiant recently opened a location in Fairfax. The skin clinic offers anti-aging facials favored by the Hollywood set. The most popular includes Microcurrent, which emits a low-level electrical current to tighten facial muscles. Shobha, 1730 M St. NW, myshobha.com; Thibiant, 3903 Fair Ridge Drive, Suite L, Fairfax, Va., thibiantbeverlyhills.com —KW
