

Fashionable Travel Essentials

Summer travel season is approaching, and while you may be swamped with the amount of work you have to take care of before your vacation to paradise, you're already thinking about filling up your carry-on with brand new items. Good for you—there's nothing worse than not being prepared for the traveling portion of your perfect getaway. Before you hit the shopping center, be sure to create a list of must-haves for the trip . Of course, you can use our list as a guide.

TRAVEL BEAUTY PRODUCTS

Beauty products are a must, especially because you won't be able to have regular access to a bathroom mirror whenever you need a touch up. According to Temptalia, flights affect the skin because of the low-humidity in the airplane, which can cause your skin to become extremely dry. Celebrity esthetician Renée Rouleau recommends that you apply a skin serum with a sunscreen over it. Also, hydrating sprays and mists are NOT recommended. You should also pack some freshening cloths or towelettes.
